SUING THE SERVITE SISTERS.

Sensational Bill Filed by an Alleged Recalcitrant Member of the Order.

If the bill filed in the Circuit court on May 23d by Attorney General Moloney should fulfill its object, the Servite Sisters, who have been practically outside the pale of the Catholic church for some years past will soon be valued at about $500,000 and accumu-West Van Buren street and Albany

Alleged improper conduct and gross ground-work of the proceedings. The mother superior, whose lay name is own name, contrary to ecclesiastical discipline, is charged with improper relationship with one J. A. McDonald, music professor, of No. 92 Loomis street, to the great scandal and injury of the institution. It appears that on account of the scandals Archbishop Feehan endeavored to persuade the mother superior to deed the property in trust to some good person, and to withdraw from the institution, but she refused, and sold some of the property, devoting the proceeds to her personal use. It is claimed that she will further deplete the property and destroy its value unless the court interferes and places the property as a public trust in charge of responsible and reputable persons. Attorney General Moloney claims that while the proceedings in this case are not in accordance with the statutory provisions governing his official duties, the common law compels him to act as he is doing in the case.

The suit is taken at the instance of Sister Veronica, who was expelled from the institution as recalcitrant and who claims a sum of $25,000 as due her by the institution for services rendered. Sister Gertrude, another member of the Servite order, came to Attorney General Moloney's office yesterday to protest against the suit, but was promptly ordered out. The bill was promptly ordered out. The bill was placed in the hands of the sheriff for immediate service. — Chicago Inter-Ocean.

1615 Howard Street, OMAHA, NEB. THE · HORRIBLE · BOOK.

Extracts from the Theological Works of Peter Dens On the Nature of Roman Catholic Confession and the Obligation of the Seal.

New Edition, Revised and Edited by STEPHALIUS, Editor of "Merry Tales of the Monks."

This book was first published in New York in the year 1832, by an anti-Catholic agitator named Sparry E. Zosinius, a Monk of La Trappe, being the It attracted great attention, and was the cause of much controversy. The sympathies of the press and public were with the publisher, and the advocates of Catholicism consequently met with defeat in their attempts to suppress the Book. A revised edition was afterwards printed in Boston. Both of these editions are now very rare. The present issue contains considerable additions, much new matter having been inserted . Ithout impairing the original text in the slightest degree. No man who regards the purity of his wife and children, or other female members of his family, should fall to peruse this book. And never would he, after perusing it, permit a female member of his family to frequent that HELL upon earth—a Roman Catholic confessional—or allow them on any pretense whatever, to hold any communion or intimacy with Romish priests or their temale jackals, the "Sisters of Charity," or of "Mercy," or those of any other of the numerous orders of mockery that have of late become so plenty in the United States of America. As nauseous and as outrageous to all decency as we know the matter contained in this book to be, we are still confident in the belief that it should be read by every head of a family in the Union. For, unless we probe the gigantic ulcer to its very core, that is now gradually eating into the vitals of our Republic, in vain will be our attempts to eradicate it. Price, in cloth, 75c; in paper cover, 25c. Cash must, in all cases, accompany orders. Address all orders to,
